PARENT TEACHER CONSULTATIONS
Parent teacher consultations are on Monday and Tuesday of next week. The signing up forms will be going up outside the classrooms from today. Please make an appointment to meet with your child's teacher and find out how they have settled into their new class.

MACMILLAN CANCER CARE
The Macmillan coffee morning and cake sale raised £141.50 for the cancer care charity. Thank you to the PTA for their hard work in supporting this very worthwhile cause.

BLACK HISTORY MONTH
October is Black History Month and the classes are learning about the flags, art and music of different countries from around the world. We will be holding an assembly next term to share some of the work the children have been doing. We are grateful to the PTA for providing the excellent choice of international flags.

TRAVELLING BOOK FAIR
The Travelling Book Fair will be in school from Friday. It will be open at the end of the school day and during the parent consultation meetings. It may also be open on some mornings. I am very grateful to Jackie Louise for organising the book fair and selling the books. It is a great deal of work and raises valuable money for books for the library. Please come along and have a look at the books on sale.

CROSS COUNTRY
Well done to our team of cross country runners and to Hussein Vakili and Bruna Ames in particular. Hussein and Bruna both came sixth in the area championships against five other schools.

HARVEST FESTIVAL
The Harvest festival is this Wednesday at 09.00 in the school hall. Parents are welcome. Please remember to send your donations of tinned food to school this week.

CHRISTMAS CARDS
The PTA are sending home the sample Christmas Cards in the children's book bags this week. If you would like to order cards please return the forms to the PTA as soon as possible.

CLEANER WANTED
The Dukes Meadows Children's Centre is looking for a cleaner to clean the community lounge every morning. For further information and a job description please speak to Leanne Hamilton in the community lounge.
